

The 15th International Colloquium on Gregory of Nyssa
University of Exeter, United Kingdom
Tuesday 6th – Friday 9th September 2022
Gregory of Nyssa's De anima et resurrectione
Call for papers

The committee invites proposals for papers relating to Gregory of Nyssa's De anima et resurrectione. Possible themes include:-

- Gregory's soteriology, eschatology and theological anthropology as relating to De anima et resurrectione;
- Gregory's theological, philosophical and literary influences, as relating to De anima et resurrectione;
- the role of Macrina in Gregory's writings;
- comparisons between De anima et resurrectione and other texts and thinkers;
- the translation, reception and after-life of De anima et resurrectione and/or its key ideas.

Proposals are invited for the two following kinds of communication:-

- 1. Plenary lectures: a maximum of 40 minutes, with 5 minutes for questions.
- 2. Short communications: a maximum of 20 minutes, with 7 minutes for questions.

The languages of the conference are: English, French, German, Italian and Spanish; proposals and papers are accepted in any of these languages.

Please send your abstract of not more than 300 words on the form below by Friday 26th November.

The committee will inform you whether your proposal has been accepted by 14th January 2022.

Please note:-

- PhD students may submit a proposal for a short paper. However, there will also be a later call for applications to the PhD student workshops, which will include any aspect of the study of Gregory of Nyssa. We recommend you aim to speak on a topic closely related to your dissertation.
- The conference proceedings will be published, but acceptance of a paper for the conference does not guarantee publication: there will be a separate process of selection for the volume.

We look forward to welcoming you to the colloquium!

Morwenna Ludlow, Richard Flower, Brandon Gallaher, Gabriele Galluzzo, Emma Loosley Leeming

The 15th International Colloquium on Gregory of Nyssa University of Exeter, 6th–9th September 2022

Gregory of Nyssa's De anima et resurrectione

Paper Proposal form:

| | | |
|---|--|--|
| Name | | |
| Institution/independent scholar | | |
| If you are a PhD student, please indicate the proposed title of your dissertation here | | |
| This is a proposal for (please select): | 1. a Plenary lecture: a maximum of 40 minutes, with 5 minutes for questions. <input type="checkbox"/> | 2. A short communication: a maximum of 20 minutes, with 7 minutes for questions. <input type="checkbox"/> |
| Abstract: NO MORE THAN 300 WORDS | | |
| Please submit to:- gregoryofnyssacolloquium@gmail.com by noon on Friday 26th November | | |